

January, 2014 Affiliate of the Month for the Women's Council of Realtors Sarasota

Congratulations to Amanda Meddaugh, The Real Estate Book, Affiliate of the Month for the Women's Council of Realtors Sarasota.

Raised in NY, Sarasota County has been Amanda Meddaugh's home since 1993. Real estate has always been a part of her life from answering phones at her mother's real estate office in her teens to her years as a closing assistant at Fidelity National Title, formerly Chelsea Title Co. in Venice. A mother of three, she keeps very busy with her children's activities and her career as Publisher of

The Real Estate Book of Sarasota.

Amanda became involved with the WCR Sarasota Chapter through a recommendation by a friend and member of another FL WCR Chapter and through membership involvement with Sarasota Association of Realtors.

Amanda said in reference to the benefits of WCR Membership, "The WCR Sarasota Chapter is a motivated, dedicated and inspiring group of real estate professionals. As new member for just a year now I have found this group incredibly welcoming and beneficial in building relationships. They continuously strive to support each and every member individually and professionally."

For over 30 years, The Real Estate Book has been connecting home buyers and sellers, through locally distributed magazines in hundreds of markets across the U.S. Canada, and the Caribbean. Today, our integrated media solution extends our reach beyond our interactive print publication to our top ranked website, RealEstateBook.com; mobile media tools; direct mail solutions; email campaigns; and social media integration. We combine these into fully integrated and customized plans to deliver the highest return on investment to our clients.

Congratulations to Amanda Meddaugh. We appreciate your commitment to WCR Sarasota.
